Minutes of the Bridge Course 2021-22

The Department of English conducted the Bridge Course to all the First Year U.G students to bridge the gap between the acquired and required knowledge on 06.10.2021 and 09.10.2021. Mr.Bastain Babu, Skillwise Group, Chennai was the Resource Person. He said that our life has changed due to Covid-19. Pandemic has changed to Epidemic hence the life style is changed from normal to new normal. We need to be focused on improving Communication Skills for future career. Body language is also important. Education is changed to technological bases. As said by A.P.J.Abdul Kalam " Have a big dream that will not put you to sleep". Like that everyone should dream, set goals and take action. During 2030 India will be different. We should always think about how we are going to equip ourselves and focus on a positive attitude. He enlightened the students on "Up skilling & Future Workforce". He also asked the students to unlock their potential and they are the future pillars. A total number of 519 students attended the course. The Valediction and feedback session was conducted on 09.10.2021.
