A One Day Workshop on “Making the History by Women”

Department of History organized a One Day workshop on the topic “Making the History by Women” on 2nd February, 2024. The inaugural session started at 10am in Hall No.9 & 10. Mrs. R. Alamelu, Head & Associate Professor of History welcomed the gathering. Dr. Anbuselvi, Principal, A.D.M College for Women has delivered presidential address. Resource person Dr. V. Sakthi Rekha, MSW., MLIS., PhD, Former Librarian & ICC Chairperson, Madras School of Social Work, Chennai enlightened the students regarding the need of writing history by women, empowerment of women and importance of women’s education. Mr. V.S. Vikash, B.A., LLB., Barefoot Academy of Governance, Chennai, has explained the importance of approaching History from different perspectives. The first session “Introduction to Koodam,” has started at 10.45 am and it lasted till 11.00 am. This session was meant to make the students to open-up and authenticate their experience and challenges sharing.

The second session “Pride and Inspiration” lasted from 11 am to 12.30 pm. Hither, the students were asked to list out the challenges that they faced from our patriarchal society. In this session, the students were actively opened-up their personal experiences and challenges. And, how far they suffered and how they overcome the challenges to get education. Few students were hesitant and felt shy to talk in the beginning. But, due to the motivation and patience of the resource persons they have also opened-up their mind. Another exercise was also given to the students. That is, each student was assigned to write any one historical personality that they inspire of and the reason for the admiration.
