A grand special panel discussion was held at Nagai ADM College for Women in the Tamil Department on September 14, 2023, at 10 AM, in commemoration of Kalaignar's centenary. The theme of the discussion was "Is the greatness of Kalaignar more reflected in his literary work or his political career?"

The panel was moderated by K. Akalya (Second Year Tamil Literature). In the literary team, the team leader Selvi S. Ezhilarasi (Second Year Tamil Literature), along with Selvi R. Dhanushni (Second Year Tamil Literature) and Selvi S. Samundeeshwari (First Year Tamil Literature), eloquently highlighted Kalaignar M. Karunanidhi's contributions to literature. They discussed how his continuous literary efforts in the fields of art and literature helped the world recognize him as a creator. They referenced his letter in Murasoli to his brother, which has been considered one of the longest-running columns globally, and mentioned how the title "Kalaignar" bestowed upon him by M.R. Radha during the play "Thookum Edai" is still lovingly used by his supporters.
